Fundraising Bake Sale Friday 5 October

We are holding the first bake sale (50p Friday) of the school year on 5th October - at morning break. To do this we need your help as we will have over 650 customers to cater for - we don't want to run out and leave any disappointed pupils. We would be grateful for your donations of home baked goods - rocky road, fairy cakes, tablet, coconut ice, cookies etc. Donations can be handed in to the school office on FRIDAY 5 OCTOBER. Don't forget every product must be nut free. If anyone has any questions please contact Alison Payne via the Towerbank School Community Facebook group.

At the weekend I went to Pedal for Scotland with my Mum, Dad and some friends. It was raining at the start and it was lots of hard work but at the end I got a medal. I feel really proud! By Polina P3

Kaz'ma enjoyed drawing the Fibonacci parabola so much he decided to extend it further.

Welcome to the wonderful new benches around the sensory garden in the playground. They are intended to create a calm zone and also ensure there is more seating for packed lunches.

TOWERBANK CALENDAR 2019

As this week was the week which featured the exciting drone in the schoolyard taking photos of the children it seems like the right time to tell you about our plans for next year's calendar.

Do you know that last year the calendar made approximately £4,000 for the school?

This year we would like to beat that target and make even more money as all profits from the calendar will go to the library project to buy much-needed books for the school.

So how can you help?

We have been looking for 12 local companies to advertise in the calendar and already this week we have 8 who have agreed!. Will you be one of the four we are still looking for? For just £150 you will have your logo printed on the month you feature which will be seen by (last year) more than 500 families. You'll be supporting the school, the library. and helping make a huge difference to the fundraising efforts at Towerbank.

If you want to go one further we are looking for a company to sponsor the whole calendar for £750. This will mean headline branding and the chance to provide more detail about your company.

We are looking to overhaul the design of the calendar this year and hope that it is the start of an annual fundraising initiative that the whole school community can get behind.

If you can help (and if you would rather just donate towards it: great!) then please let me know either by PM on Facebook or by emailing zoe@life-edit.me
