P7 and The Beatles

These are replicas of the original Sergeant Pepper album designed by Sir Peter Blake. The original album cover was not a collage but was made from life size plywood models. Some of the models were wax and came from Madame Tussaud's. Each of the Beatles was asked by Sir Peter Blake to choose people they would like to have in their audience.

Everyone in the class got into groups and picked people they would like to have in their collage. I wonder who you would have in your album covers?

House Tokens competition for 2 weeks

All the children have now been assigned to one of the four Towerbank Houses named after local parks.

We will hold the first competition starting on Monday on the theme of Ready from our behavior policy.

Staff in school and in the playground will be giving out recycled plastic house points for children demonstrating aspects of being ready.

Towerbank is a school that has a school uniform. We believe there are positive advantages to having uniform and this is very well supported by families. House points will not be handed out for school uniform but we will continue to encourage all pupils to wear school uniform. We also appreciate the cost of the school day and if you require support in acquiring school uniform please let a member of the school office know.

Tower bank Parent Group

- Library helpers: The school is a partnership project between the School and the Towerbank Parent Group and we always need volunteers to help with library. Every Friday from drop off until pick up, is “Tidy Friday” in the library and we need volunteers who can give an hour or more on a regular or ad hoc basis. If you’d like to find out more, drop into the library on Friday morning or email the Library group at towerbanklibrarygroup@gmail.com.
- Class reps: Our class representatives together represent a cross-section of the school. We ask that they attend meetings as often as they can to make sure any ideas, thoughts and opinions from their class are put forward. There are still vacancies for 1A, 1B, 3C and 7B so if you'd like to become a class rep please get in touch towerbankparentcouncil@gmail.com.
